

North Carolina Thoracic Society's 30-day COPD Readmissions Summit

Location/Date:	WakeMed, Raleigh NC -Andrews Center, 3000 New Bern Ave – 11:30 AM - 5 PM August 31, 2018 https://www.wakemed.org/center-innovative-learning-directions
Goal:	Provide a broad perspective of COPD hospital readmissions to aid healthcare providers and organizations in their efforts to improve care for this patient population
Program Coordinators:	Vikas Pathak, MD Host (WakeMed), Roy Pleasants, PharmD (Duke University & Durham VA) , Jill Ohar, MD (Wake Forest University), Brad Drummond, MD, MHS (UNC Chapel Hill), Jason Thomason, MD (Novant Health), and Tim Scialla, MD (Duke University)
Agenda:	11:30	Lunch
	12:00	Introduction
	12:15	Perspective of 30-day COPD readmissions by a health outcomes improvement organization (Premier Healthcare)
	12:45	A Medical Director's perspective – Jill Ohar, MD
	1:05	Pulmonary rehabilitation perspective - Connie Paladenech, RRT, RCP (WFU)
	1:25	Drug therapies to prevent and treat exacerbations - Roy Pleasants, PharmD
	1:45	Primary care perspective – Amy Shaheen, MD (UNC Chapel Hill)
	2:05	Pharmaceutical industry perspective
	2:25	Break
	2:40	Mission St Joseph's model – Cathy Trimby, RRT
	2:55	Cone Health model – Elvin Perkins, MBA
	3:10	FirstHealth of the Carolinas model – Scott Johnson, MD
	3:25	Duke University model – Tim Scialla, MD
	3:40	UNC-Chapel Hill model – Brad Drummond, MD, MHS
	3:55	Wake Health model – Sharon Cornelison, RRT
	4:10	Panel Discussion
	5:00	Conclusion
Registration:	Registration - email your interest to attend to roy.pleasants@duke.edu . No charges.
Target Attendees:	All health systems and hospitals in NC including Transition Care personnel (eg RTs, nursing, social workers), pulmonologists, mid-level providers, hospitalists, & pharmacists
Questions:	Contact Vikas Pathak, MD (drvikaspathak@gmail.com) or Roy Pleasants, PharmD	