

Ziskind Clinical Research Scholar Award Review Criteria

Applications will be evaluated for achievements in the following areas: leadership, scholarship, grants, and ATS involvement. Each criterion will be assessed using the below scoring system to facilitate the review discussion.

Leadership

- 1: Chair of an institutional committee
- 2: Chief resident/fellow in their training program
- 3: Membership on institutional committees
- 4: Community and institutional service
- 5: None

Scholarship

- 1: 1st author – original research of exemplary quality and/or quantity
- 2: 1st author – original research
- 3: 1st author – case reports, reviews
- 4: Co-authorship papers
- 5: None

Grants

- 1: ≥ 1 funded grant application for a fellowship award (e.g., F32, Parker B. Francis or equivalent)
- 2: ≥ 1 funded grant application for an extramural award ≥ $50,000
- 3: ≥ 1 funded grant application for an institutional award (e.g., competitive institutional T32 position)
- 4: ≥ 1 funded grant application for a small, institutional award (e.g., division or department awards for < $5,000)
- 5: No funded grant applications

ATS Involvement

- 1: Chair of ATS committee, Assembly committee or Working Group.
- 2: Presenter at post-graduate courses, Sunrise and/or Meet the Professor Sessions, Discussion leader at ATS boot camp, Moderator of thematic or poster discussion sessions, symposia, etc. or equivalent
- 3: Member of ATS committee or Assembly committee
- 4: Participation in ATS or Assembly activities such as ATS boot camp, mentoring program, or equivalent
- 5: ATS Assembly member